Jesus is Alive!

It was the third day after Jesus died. All of a sudden, the earth shook and rocks fell. A glowing angel rolled the huge stone away from the tomb. The guards shook with fear. They became like dead men.

The women who followed Jesus went to his tomb. They had spices to take care of his body. The stone had been rolled away. They looked inside. The tomb was empty!

The angel said to the women, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? Jesus is not here; he has risen, just as he said he would! Don't be afraid. Go tell his disciples."

They remembered that Jesus said he would rise. The women ran away. They were afraid but full of joy.

Jesus appeared to them. They fell at his feet and worshipped. "Don't be afraid," he said. "Go tell my brothers. They will also see me."

The women told the disciples the happy news. They did not believe. But Peter ran to the tomb.

Yes, it was empty! He picked up the strips of linen. He smelled the spices. Peter thought, "Could it really be true? Could my Jesus truly be alive?"

Questions

1. What did the women see and feel?

2. What did they do with this happy news?

3. How did the men react to the news?

4. When Jesus came back to life, we call it the resurrection. Who can you tell this news to during the Easter season?

Prayer

Dear Jesus,
You are the king of heaven and earth. You are the Lord over life and death. You proved it by raising yourself from the dead. Help me tell this happy news of the resurrection to others, even if they don't believe at first.
Amen

For Easter, cut out the poem and put it into an empty egg. Have an egg hunt. The one who finds the empty egg has truly found the best one!

The Empty Egg

If you are looking for candy, I have a sweet surprise.
You can look into the tomb where the body of Jesus lies.

But the tomb is empty! He is alive; the tale is true!
The empty egg reminds us of this happy truth.

41. Jesus is Alive! Luke 24:1-12 World English Bible (WEB)

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.
They found the stone rolled away from the tomb.
They entered in, and didn't find the Lord Jesus' body.
While they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing. Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth.
They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"
They remembered his words, and returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles. These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them.

But Peter got up and ran to the tomb.

Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.
